The Early Church and the Changing Roman World

Name: _____ Date: _____

Match a claim to its source

Read Acts 11:26 and 15:1-6, 19-29. Add cards for an ancient historical account, an imperial policy, and a council’s creed. Sort selected statements from this chapter by their supporting source. Finish by tracing the eastern imperial band beyond the western turning point of 476.

Use this space for your diagram, notes, calculation, or checked explanation. Keep the printed chapter beside you.

Chapter 11 | Check your reading

Write your answers before opening the explained answers on the resource page.

1. Are Christian teachers’ bars a family tree from Jesus?

2. Where does Acts connect the name Christians with disciples?

3. What dispute does Acts 15 address?

4. Why qualify general claims about Nero’s persecution?

5. What question is central to the Nicene creed’s language about the Son?

6. What continued after the conventional western turning point of 476?